The greater media landscape is an ever evolving one, adapting to the changing needs and wants of the consumers it serves. Above all else, innovation and creativity are the key to enduring success in such an environment, regardless of where your company specialises in the industry. From top-tier marketing firms, to those looking to reinvent digital media, it pays to differentiate yourself from what is, by all regards, an incredibly competitive field.

Corporate Vision launched the original Media Innovator programme to recognise those that took this ethos to heart. To adapt, grow and evolve to the needs of the industry in the pursuit of bettering it and challenging others to follow their lead. Discussing the success of their winners, Awards Coordinator Jaamen Collins said: "I offer a sincere congratulations to those recognised in this year's programme and I hope you have a wonderful rest of the year ahead."
